Fleury, the French Cutter!

What Others Do Well, We Do Better!

Our maxim in reference to our Boys' and Children's department, we can fit and suit the boys in every line commencing with the school grade of suits at $2.75, to fine dress suits; also to match white and fancy shirts, neckwear and hats and caps.

FOR CHILDREN: Kilt suits in different styles and grades; short pants suits ranging from $2 up; shirt waists from 25 cts., and a nice line of hats and caps.

SEE OUR BASE BALL OUTFIT!

Given away with every boy's or child's suit, consisting of Ball, Bat and Cap. When looking at the above lines, don't forget our general stock is large and complete.

THE BOY'S FRIEND Fleury, the French Cutter!

One-Price Clothing and Merchant Tailoring House, Cor. Old Square.

The Iowa Democratic State convention is in session for the "old ticket."

That was a naughty trick in the Arthur and Edmunds suits in the New York state convention to combine against the great and good Blaine.

If Corry Jones wants to make a few five dollar notes and do a decent thing besides, he can do it by procuring the man who sells "budge" to Amos Howenstein.

The respectable railroad keepers should see to it that the man who sells "budge" to Amos Howenstein is made to feel the weight of the law. The police can tell them who does it.

Samuel the Scotchman, attempted to reform the Democrats, a few nights ago, but even the most ardent prohibitionists there do not want much of it till after the November elections.

Harry Moore will head the republican delegation from his state to Chicago. It looks as if the rebel brigadiers would have something to say in dominating the republican candidate.

It is charged that McQuinn was beaten in the Peoria convention for attorney general by the railroad. He may not be much of a lawyer, but he tried to enforce the law against corporations, which is something they do not like, and on this account he was beaten.

The man who sells whiskey or beer to Amos Howenstein is not to be kept a saloon. It is conduct of this character that has enabled the prohibitionists to carry the election. Amos has been a wreck for ten years, but has been sober for over four months.

He has been drunk for three days and was seen at a licensed bar in this city last night, in this condition, with a glass of beer in his hand. This is a proper case for the grand jury.

The Taylorville Republican, whose editor also edits the Taylorville post office, says: "The delegates from the southern states are mostly for Arthur. And why not? There are few white republicans in the southern states, except those holding federal offices by appointment of Mr. Arthur, and of course they will be for the man to whom they are indebted for the honors and emoluments they at present enjoy and hope to continue enjoying."

The Chicago Current thinks the political side shows of this year will be numerous. It says "where there will be another abolition of political independence originating in Massachusetts, the usual prohibitory liquor law convention, and the nomination of a national ticket, a spurt of green-backery—the result of the Supreme Court legal tender decision; a federal independence convention; a national independent convention, and several other evidences of a disposition of people to get their necks out of old political yokes."

If the prohibitionists think they can enforce no license, let them show their earnestness and zeal by beginning prohibition at once against the man who sells liquor to Amos Howenstein. He has been working in this office for four months and was regaining his old time, handicraft, in which he cannot be excelled in the city, but he has been furnished "budge" to make him lose his shirt. He should be a general nuisance. The nation's keeper who furnishes him liquor would be a proper subject to try what is going to be done.

The Inter-Ocean must be conducted on the theory that the majority of its readers are Germans. It predicts that if the democrats get into power that within six months after the election, gold will be at a premium, and when that comes, to look out for brewers. This kind of twaddle may frighten a few political bugs, but sensible men know better. The people do not forget that this country in 1876 had a large majority of democrats, and that they have the same property and social interest that republicans have. Besides this they are not any less patriotic.

A Break Down.
Webster Lewis No. 6, better known as the St. Louis accommodation, met with an accident three and a half miles the other side of Boody last night. A truck under the smoking stack broke down, and caused a long delay. The passengers were crowded into the baggage car, and the engine pulled the train on, leaving the remainder of the train on the track. The wrecking train was immediately sent out but several hours were consumed in getting things in shape again. Train No. 42 and No. 2, both from St. Louis, which should arrive here at 12:55 and 12:45 were also delayed by the accident. The accommodation was in charge of Conductor W. E. Morgan and was pulled by engine No. 132, of which Billy Andersons engineer.

The employees of the Joliet penitentiary have converted the labor of 475 convicts, as follows:
To Selig, Schuyler & Co., shoemakers, 250 men, at an average of 88 cents per day.
To J. H. Whelan & Co., cooper, 88 men, at 65 cents per day.
To Racer & Co., saddlery and harness, 50 men, at 55 cents per day.
To Henry Cullen, knitting, 55 men, at 55 cents per day.
To Brainerd & Co., stone and masonry, 27 men, at 71 cents per day.

The contractors pay for all hauling and extra expense. The same number of men were let eight years ago, under the administration of Governor Beveridge. Under the present, each the yield is $120 per day, or $25,000 in the aggregate, more than under the Beveridge regime.

R. H. Schrock, of Warrensburg, wishes to call the attention of horse breeders and owners to his celebrated product, Gould, who will make the present season at his stable in that town. Gould is a very fine horse, well bred, fine in form, good size and in style and action unsurpassed. He is a beautiful bay, five years old. He was bred by Keightley, by Jay Gould, by Isidore's Hambletonian, while his dam is Morgan and Buck Hawk, nearly related to the celebrated Fear night, purchased by Col. Russell, present owner of Springfield, for $20,000. There is no finer nor more promising young horse in Central Illinois.

During the past year the P. D. & E. conductors have been obliged to give a duplex ticket for each coach received on the train. The passenger could present this or any ticket office on the line and receive a rebate of ten cents when amount was charged extra on the train. On and after May 1st, 1884, passengers respecting to purchase tickets before leaving the train, will be obliged to pay ten cents more than a ticket could have been purchased for. Instead of a duplicate ticket being issued by the conductor a cash fare receipt will be given to each passenger paying fare on the train, and it will not be redeemable for the excess charged, at our ticket offices as heretofore. To avoid trouble and annoyance, and save the extra ten cents charged on the trains, passengers should buy tickets.

A War of Words Between Dorseheimer and Randall During the House Proceedings.

The Naval Appropriation and the Cattle Disease Bills in the House and Senate.

Knox's Resignation Again—Internal Revenue Receipts—American Wheat in Europe.

Current Topics.

A LIVELY SCENE IN THE HOUSE. When the House met this morning the scene yesterday afternoon of the House was repeated in the House of Representatives. Taking place as it did between two of the most prominent men (Messrs. Dorseheimer and Randall) on the Democratic side, it created the utmost excitement and commotion. Mutual friends are trying to effect a reconciliation between the two leaders, but so far have had but poor success.

On the House met, Mr. Payson, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to prevent the unlawful occupancy of the public lands. Mr. Randall, from the Committee on Appropriation, reported back the Naval Appropriation bill, with the Senate amendments. Mr. Kason, thereupon, raised a point of order, that the amendments must first be considered by the House.

On the point of order raised by Mr. Kason, Mr. Randall called up the bill. Mr. Kason declared that the amendments were referred to the Committee of the Whole. Mr. Randall declared that the amendments were referred to the Committee of the Whole. Mr. Kason declared that the amendments were referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr. Graves has been connected with the Treasury's office for the past twenty years, and has filled every grade in that bureau from a minor clerkship to Assistant Treasurer, the position he now holds. His appointment would be a strict construction of the principles of civil-service reform, and could not fail to give general satisfaction.

AMERICAN WHEAT FOR EUROPE. In his answer to the Senate resolution asking information as to the average price of wheat, Mr. Randall, from the Committee on Appropriation, reported back the bill to prevent the unlawful occupancy of the public lands.

John H. Deane, Lawyer and Real Estate Dealer, Assignee with $500,000 Liability, has been in the Value of Property for the Cause.

New York, April 24.—John H. Deane, senior member of the firm of Deane & Chamberlin, lawyers, made an assignment yesterday to his partner, Ward B. Chamberlin, with stated preferences amounting to $500,000. Deane practiced law a number of years, and came into contact with builders and real estate speculators. Several years ago he purchased land containing 900 building lots in the vicinity of Mount Morris Park.

His indebtedness to the amount of $500,000 for which his real estate is mortgaged is over $600,000, but the assignee says that the assets double the liabilities. The failure was precipitated by inability to realize on the property rapidly enough to meet maturing obligations. Many of Deane's creditors are personal friends, and they express a willingness to stand by him, and no legal difficulties are anticipated.

A simple venture made by Deane was the purchase of one hundred acres of land in Harlem, on which he erected two hundred and fifty houses, and all in all, he has put upon thousands six hundred houses within sixteen years, and sometimes employed three thousand men.

An exchange, who doubtless speaks from experience rather than observation, says "the season is now at hand when the foolish man doffeth somewhat with the sniffles in conse-

As an article for the toilet, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivaled. It cleanses the scalp and preserves it from scurf and dandruff, cures itching hair to its original dark color, and promotes its growth. 422dlw

The disfiguring eruptions on the face, the sunken eye, the pallid complexion, indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expel Sarsaparilla was devised for that purpose; and does it. 422dtf Samuel Milligan a prominent and highly respected citizen of Taylorville, died at his residence in that city on Monday night. His death weeks since.

Work is progressing finely at the new escapement shaft near the Midland depot. A depth of twelve feet has already been reached. It is impossible to work a very large force at the shaft. Persons who desire dirt for filling up their lots, can have it free by sending their wagons to the shaft.

Decatur will soon have a number of well front residences on different streets. Since the row was put up on North Water street, they have become popular. It is a pretty and attractive style of residence, and it is no wonder that they are popular, for they are admired by everybody.

General Manager Talmage of the Wabash has instructed superintendents to be very exacting on section men, requiring all rights of way to be kept perfectly clean, and ties to be height, and that they keep the roadway generally in a clean and orderly condition.

Lincoln has another sensation. On Wednesday two men entered an Irish serted place, and outraged her. They succeeded in getting her intoxicated before attempting the dastardly deed. The woman's home is Streator, and one of her assailants, Charles Engelhart, has been arrested.

pleasure in showing the many beautiful articles of headgear designed and made by Miss Morgan, Mrs.
McDonald's Chicago trimmer.

The sociable at the First M. E. church last evening, which was giving under the management of the ladies of that house of worship, was a delightful affair and was largely attended. Refreshments consisting chiefly of ice cream and strawberries, were served by the managers and partaken of by those present. This was the first strawberry festival of the season.

James Roberts, the teamster at Mills & Harry's, who was recently married to Miss Susan Smith, has gone to housekeeping at 1044 North Morgan street. Messrs. Mills & Harry and their employees purchased and had set up, an elegant $28 cook stove, which was their present to Mr. and Mrs. Roberts. The couple were highly delighted with the gift, and will always cherish a grateful remembrance for the donors. The Review wishes them much joy, and hopes they may never want for an abundant good things to cook on their new stove.

The Legal Adviser contains the following: "Two years ago a Bloomington merchant obstructed a sidewalk with oil barrels. A man was hurt in consequence, and sued the city for $5,000. He recovered $150 and costs. The city then sued the merchant for the amount it had to pay out for damages resulting from this act, and the case, after two trials in the circuit court and one in the appellate court has just been decided in favor of the city. They recovered all they paid out with interest. This seems to settle the question of responsibility in such cases, and will become a precedent in all future trials."

Mrs. M. L. McDonald employs the usual mode of informing her many patrons through the columns of the city papers, rather than addressing useless cards or personal letters, and will compare prices and qualities with any house in the city. "No exceptions." Annual opening of elegantly trimmed goods. Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 29th, 30th and May 1st.

The first race occurs at Lexington in

The Washington Post says the following of Leon & Cushman's minstrels which will appear here Saturday evening. "Leon and Cushman presented a new and novel version of minstrelsy to a large audience last evening. The part, with its threadbare jokes, is done away with entirely, and the entertainment is provided in a two act burlesque, on titled "Sarah Barnum," in which the specialties of the performers are introduced. The burlesque, "Ill-Fed Dora," which is included in the bill, is a very laughable travesty of Sar-don's great drama. The company is a remarkably good organization, each member of it being an artist of recognized ability. Besides Leon there are two very good female imperson-ators, Eugene and J. H. Snrridge, who shared in the honors. Leon's songs and remarks were received with great applause, as were those of Frank Cushman. The costuming of the burlesque was really magnificent and something hitherto unknown in minstrelsy. Taken as a whole the performance was one of the most enjoyable of the kind seen in this city for a long time."
Popular prices, 25, 50 and 75 cents.
